

GRAMMAR SPY

CASE FILE #001

Mission Briefing

A grammar emergency has been reported. Sentences across the city are breaking apart, verbs are missing, and word order is collapsing. Your team has been called to investigate.

To complete this mission, solve each grammar clue. Every clue will reveal one letter of a secret code. When you collect all the letters, you will uncover the identity of the secret agent.

Mission Objective

Solve the grammar puzzles. Record the secret letter after each clue. At the end, use your letters to unlock the final code.

STUDENT MISSION PAGE – PART 1

Clue 1 – Subject and Verb

Correct the sentence:

Students practicing grammar right now.

Write the correct sentence:

Code Rule: Take the FIRST letter of the sentence subject.

Letter 1: _____

Clue 2 – Past Tense

Choose the correct verb:

Yesterday she ___ soccer with her friends.

A) play
B) played
C) plays

Code Rule: Take the FIRST letter of the correct verb.

Letter 2: _____

STUDENT MISSION PAGE – PART 2

Clue 3 – Word Order

Unscramble the sentence:

you / are / spy / a

Write the correct sentence:

Code Rule: Take the LAST letter of the final word.

Letter 3: _____

CODE TRACKER

Letter 1	Letter 2	Letter 3
—	—	—

FINAL CODE

Arrange your letters to reveal the secret agent:

— — —

Mission Complete! Continue your training at GRAMMARSPY.NET

TEACHER GUIDE

Goal: Review key grammar structures while solving a short mystery activity.

Time: 15–20 minutes

Level: Middle or High School ELL / ELD

Instructions

1. Give each student the mission pages.
2. Students solve each clue individually or in small groups.
3. After solving the grammar task, they follow the code rule to collect a letter.
4. When all letters are collected, students reveal the final code: SPY.

ANSWER KEY

Clue 1: Students are practicing grammar right now. → Letter S

Clue 2: Correct answer: played → Letter P

Clue 3: Correct sentence: You are a spy. → Letter Y

Final Code: SPY